Committee Reports

ODE Report: Reminder FMCSA drug/alcohol clearing house went live on January 6, 2020.
Janice Briggs is still in the support role.
BTW, class is going to be large. Requests for the class are up around 46. Check with your applicant concerning the details. Follow-up on the required documents. Send an email to Kylie Howell-ODE Kylie.Howell@ode.state.or.us if you have any questions.
Reminder, a valid Commercial Driver Permit must have the "S" endorsement and the "P" endorsement showing on the document. The 14 days waiting period starts with correct document. Reissue for any reason starts the 14 days over.
New compliance officer with the DMV is Audra Shaw.

State Board: Chris Ellison reports he is looking into options for an app so we can get more feedback with our conferences and workshops. Would SW be willing to help out with the cost? We discussed different possibilities SW fund one year. Vendors sponsor a year. More discussion is needed regarding cost.

Winter Workshop: Chris Ellison reports we have 943 people registered so far. He is picking up the speakers on Friday. Joanna made motion for Chris Ellison to take speakers out to dinner on Friday. Carla Tysor second. Approved. Deadline for who is coming for Craig Pruitt is Thursday.

Education:

Rich Sanner from Peterson reports they have training opportunities. Check to see if there is any in your area at Petersontrucks.com/events.

Brian Otto from Allison Transmission came and discussed transmissions and their app.

Sara Jones from Western says February 28, 2020 is the ride and drive for the electric bus. If you are coming up early and want to see something else just let her know.

Kevin Kramer from Schetky reports that they are a fourth generation, family owned and operated business. They focus their energy and resources to providing all customers the best experience. They have 3 service centers in Washington.

New Business:

David Jorgenson thinks we should look into an app or Zoom for our meetings to get more people to join us.
